SEMINAR ANNOUNCEMENT

Assessing Adolescent Sexual Offender Risk: The Estimate of Risk of Adolescent Sexual Offense Recidivism (ERASOR) Model Training for Juvenile Probation Officers and Caseworkers

January 9, 2008
Michigan Hall of Justice
Lansing, Michigan

Seminar Description

The Michigan Judicial Institute (MJl) is pleased to offer a seminar designed for juvenile division probation officers and caseworkers.

The seminar will be presented by James R. Worling, Ph.D., the creator and developer of the ERASOR model, and will include the following topics:

- An overview of the adolescent sex offender
- The importance of a comprehensive clinical assessment
- Approaches to risk assessment
- The ERASOR structured checklist of risk factors
- A general overview of current treatment approaches
- Principles of self-care for the probation officer

The Michigan Judicial Institute recognizes the value of this educational opportunity to other juvenile division staff and will accept registrations on a space-available basis.

Registration Procedure

Individuals interested in attending this seminar must complete the attached registration form (form may be duplicated). The registration form must be received by MJl no later than Friday, December 14, 2007.

Seminar Logistics

The seminar will commence at 9:00 a.m. and conclude by 5:00 p.m.

Please be advised that a request for attendance is a commitment to attend and complete the entire seminar.

Lodging

Double-occupancy lodging is assigned by MJJ at the Sheraton Lansing Hotel for the evening prior to the date of attendance. To qualify for MJJ paid lodging, your office must be located more than 65 miles from the Michigan Hall of Justice.

If a single room is requested, the participant is responsible for the additional lodging room cost. Please make the appropriate lodging request on the attached registration form. Facility space constraints do not allow MJJ to make any arrangements for lodging of spouses, family, or friends of seminar participants.

Meals

Participants will be provided with a luncheon and refreshments. All other meals and incidental expenditures, including mileage, telephone calls, entertainment, etc., are the responsibility of each individual or his/her governmental funding unit.

Persons with Disabilities

The Michigan Hall of Justice accommodates persons with disabilities. If you require special accommodations due to a disability, please indicate your needs on the attached registration form.

Confirmation

Applicants selected for attendance will be mailed individual confirmation letters and other pertinent information immediately following the close of registration. If you have applied for the seminar and do not receive a confirmation letter at least 10 days prior to the seminar date(s), please contact MJJ.

Questions

If you have questions concerning the seminar or the registration process, please call Peter Stathakis, Program Manager, at (517) 373-7607 or Anne DeMarco, Program Assistant, at (517) 373-7349 or by e-mail at stathakis@courts.mi.gov or demarcoa@courts.mi.gov.
